

BOMALLA GOLU FESTIVAL

A spectacular display of artistic expression was presented with the 'Bomalla Golu' - a unique regional festival from the states of Andhra Pradesh and Tamil Nadu, co-relating with the School theme of the year – The East Coast of India. The presentation was showcased on 15th October 2018 by the children from Grades I–III with a collection of folk songs and dances. Our School believes in the diversity of India and this amply represented that spirit. There was the traditional display of colourful dolls tastefully arranged on the ritual 5 steps. And to contrast this on stage was the 'Gollu' of students frozen in their frames which came alive by turn. The programme had all the elements of a blockbuster- dance, music, and drama with a delightful entwining story of the legendary story of Tenali Raman, one of the eight poets in the court of Emperor Krishna Devaraya of Vijaynagar, lost in the forest while out on his travels! And of course the SDG's woven into them in the finale!

Annual Day 2018

On 22nd December 2018, the young Foundationers took us on a splendid expedition down the states along the East Coast of India, which is the School theme of the year – there was song/rap, dance, drama, and a riot of colours at the Annual Day 2018, aptly named, 'Down the East Coast in 60 Minutes'. The pageant wove together a dramatized amalgamation of sustainability and culture of the states along the East coast of India from West Bengal to Odisha and then down Tamil Nadu and Andhra Pradesh. The highlight was the Sustainable Development Goal-14 (SDG-14) i.e. Life under water. An eye-opening Pollution Rap showcased the reasons behind pollution of water bodies of our planet. The Baul dance of West Bengal, Mayilattam of Tamil Nadu and the Sambhalpuri and Chau dance forms of Odisha seemed like a vast elevated tapestry of the rich Indian cultural heritage. Our eminent guests released balloons with messages of 'Save Water'.

Skype in the Classrooms

A class conducted as an interface with peers across the world is both a novel and an invaluable leading tool. At our School, students are being oriented to interact so, from an early age. Distant and unfamiliar cultures, accents, languages, even time zones and perspectives lends itself to stretching the young imaginations, as it were.
